BOOK RELEASE: *HOW TO SEND YOUR STUDENTS TO COLLEGE WITHOUT LOSING YOUR MIND OR YOUR MONEY

Author Shellee Howard shares her proven strategies for helping students get into their perfect college and graduate debt-free

LAGUNA BEACH, CA (Sept. 6, 2018) – College Ready Founder and Certified Educational Planner Shellee Howard’s book, How to Send Your Student to College Without Losing Your Mind or Your Money, is an essential tool for parents with college-bound students. Shellee wrote the book, “To help families develop a plan so they can have choices and save thousands of dollars on tuition.”

The book, which was a number one best seller on Amazon with 24 hours of release, takes the fear out of planning for college by providing tactics on how to not only get into a perfect matched college but also how to afford it, what colleges are looking for in a student, how to write a successful essay, how to ace a college admissions interview, how to get scholarships, and more.

Shellee’s helped hundreds of students all over the world get into and graduate from the college of their dreams debt-free, including her son who graduated from Harvard with no student loans. Her passion is helping families create a plan to minimize their debt and that allows the student to stand out and shine among their competition.

One-on-one customized coaching is available through College Ready, which includes services such as financial planning, selecting a perfect fit college, writing and editing college essays, test preparation, leadership counseling, and community service coaching.

“College is the stepping stone into a child’s future,” said Shellee. “If planned properly, the student will attend the best college for them, graduate in four years debt free and have a job waiting for them. Setting them up for a great start.”
